Sweet Memory of Mother

Dear John:

While my mother died when I was 14 years old, her life left such an imprint on my life I hope I will never forget to emulate her true, devoted, Christian character. How well do I remember her parting message as I stood by the bedside, she holding my hand, said to me: "be a good boy my son and try and meet me in HEAVEN."

Below I give a verse which she taught me in early childhood, that many sons and daughters should read and heed:

I ought to love my mother, she loved me long ugo, There is on earth no other, that ever loved me so. I ought to try to please her, and all her words to mind, And never vex or tease her nor speak n word unkind. Though I can never pay her, for all her love and care,

I will honor and obey her while God my life shall spare Yours truly, J. B. HERNDON,

The baliroom and the banquet halls were regarded as models of splendor and of convenience. Parau Stevens, one of the best known hotel men of the time and the landlord of the Tremont House, was at its head.

It was patronized by Webster, Cleveland, Adelina Pattl, Christine Nilsson, Emperor Pedro of Brazil, King Kainkana of the Hawallan Islands, Admiral Mohammed Pasha of the Turkish navy, his Imperial highness the Grand Duke Alexis of Russin and Generals Grant, Sherman and Sheridan.

Here, too, in 1860, stayed I'rluce Aibert of Waies, the future King Edward VII. of England. One of the rooms lu the hotel had ever since been set aside, fuded in its decorntions, but rich in its associations. It was the room Prince Albert occupied.

FARM TRAIN BACK

Covers 2,453 Miles And Stops At One Hundred And Eight Kentucky Towns And Cities. Other Similar Trips Will Be Made.

From The Lexington iteraid.

After visiting 108 of the principal cities and towns of Kentucky, traveiing over 2,453 miles of railroad and be-Ing greeted by about 75,000 people, the Fnrm Special Trnia, which started from Lexington March 25, under the auspices of the State University, arrived home last night shortly after 5

The train was conducted by the College of Agriculture of State University in co operation with the State Department of Agriculture and seven rallroads, and was in the charge of Super-Intendent T. R. Bryant of the Extension Division of the college.

On board the train were President Henry S. Barker, of State University; Prof. M. A. Scoviile, Prof. George Roberts, Prof. J. J. Hooper, Prof. A. J. Reed, Prof. C. W. Mathews, Miss Aubyn Chinn, from this city, and the following professors from out of the city; T. D. Smith, of Richmond; Joseph T. Wing, of Ohio; E. C. Martindale, of Indiana; Commissioner of Agriculture J. W. Newman and Misses Neale S. Knowles and Eda L. Murphy, of the Iowa State College.

A number of State University students from this city also went on the train. Speeches were made at each stop and practical demonstrations of interest to farmers were given all over the state. The trip was a success from start to finish and frequent repetition of the experiment has been assured.

The raiiroads which contributed to the success of the train were: The Chesapeake & Ohio, the Louisville & Nashville, the Illinois Central, the Lou-Isville, Henderson & St. Louis, the Southern, the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis and the Queen & Cresent.

It is estimated that a total of 75.000 people heard the speakers and saw the demonstrations and exhibits of the train, which was made up of a number of day coaches, sleepers, exhibit cars,

On the subject of leap year-by the way, this is leap year-the Britanniea snys pessimistically that "no satisfactory" explaantion has ever been offered of the origin of the eustom for women to woo and not be wooed one year in every four. But it offers the leap year statute of Margaret, the mald of Norway. Murgaret reigned over Scotland from 1286 to 1290, though she dled before she could get there. In the year 1288, which was leap year, the

How To Get Fishing

Worms Without Work.

Daiias, Tex., April 27.-Coi. W. G. Sterrett, weil-known newspaper correspondent and now State game and fish warden for Texas, to-day announced the following method as a labor-saving device to get fishing bait without digging it:

"You take a broom handle three and one-half feet long." says Sterrett, "drive it into the spot likely to be inhabited by angle worms Leave an end sticking up about six Inches. Then take a rough board and rub it over the top of the broom handle. This rubbing willi cause a vibration of the earth and the worms, angry and disturbed, will work their way out of the ground. A feliow can get a pall full of worms in a short tline."

"But, Colonel," asked a reporter, "doesn't it take work to rub the board on top of the stick?"

"Get a negro to rub the board!" exclaimed the Colonel.

MR. BECKHAM'S LETTER.

We print in another column, Mr. Beckham's lettter addressed to all Democrats. Every Democrat in Breckenridge county should read it. He tells the truth about Mr. Watterson, Mr. Beckham has been subjected to the most virulent, venomous attacks that any man ever had. What for? Simply because as Mr. Beekham truly says:

"I could have escaped the coveted calumnies of his pen and paper some years ago, if I had yielded to his solie tations that I make way for him to run for Governor of Kentucky. And in 1907, when, as Governor, I had to appoint a Mayor and other officers in the City of Louisville, I could have insured my election to the United States Senate by turning over to his gang the appointment of those officers and surrendering my determination to see that the laws of the Commonwealth were enforced in that City."

Another thing that has brought down the wrath of the Editor, Mr. Beckham assumed the right of all free American citizens as favoring Woodrow Wilson for the Presidential nomination-for this he ealls him "a Kentucky crook in partnership with a New ! Jersey erook." It is high time the Kentucky Democrats were asserting themselves as Mr. Beckham has so manfully done, and pull loose from a gang who would turn over a great party to any interest who will bow down and serve them.

THE BOSSES AND POLITICIANS.

The bosses and politicians are all against Wilson for the reason that he is against them. A Clark manager said to the News. "I you want pie you want to get into the Clark band wagon. He and Ollie James will have the say when offices are handed out, no matter who is President." And so the matter goes. It is "pie" patriotism rather than good Government and rule of the people and by the people. If Woodrow Wilson was a machine politician and had so acted in his own state of New Jersey he would have no trouble in landing the nomination for President. In every state the politicians are fighting him just as they are in Kentucky.

We are for Wilson because, we believe him to be an able man. fearless, bold and ambitions for the rights of the people. He is doing more for his state as Governor than any Governor in recent years. He has made his party redeem their ante-election pledges and promises and inaugurated a thorough political house cleaning. He will do the same if elected President lie is nearer the people than any man offering for that great office today. We havn't a word of 'criticism against Mr. Clark if he is the choice of a majority of the Democruts, well and good he will have our hearty support-but we do want the Wilson Democrats to come out and stand for him. Attend the convention and assert your rights as free American citizens and Democrats.

A VERSE FOR THE BEGGAR.

Victor Hugo's Response to the Old Blind Soldier's Appeal.

A Frenchman, writing recently upon "The Mendicants of Paris," recalls n pretty nnecdote of Victor Hugo and n blind beggar. The beggar was an old soldier, very feeble and quite sightless, who was led every day by his Ilttle granddaughter to n certain strect corner, where he walted patiently for Grove Sunday. such scanty arms as the hurrying publle might drop into a small box that hang from his neck.

One day a group of gentlemen halted name by which they cailed the one week. who lingered longest. Reaching forward as he, too, was about to go, he caught him by the coat.

"What do you want, my good man?" asked the gentleman. "I have already given you 2 sous."

"Yes, monslenr, and I have thanked yon," replied the veteran. "It is something else that I want."

"What Is it?"

"You shall have them," said the gentleman, and he kept his word. The next day the blind soldler bore on his breast n placard with n stunza to which was appended the name of Victor Hugo, and the alms in the box were quintupled. The lines may be thus translated:

"I was just testing," said Smithers to his companion, "the truth of the story that the first corkscrew seeu in Beirut was brought there by n Yankee. It was a patented American contraption, and the Syrlms were amazed at took that to be the name of the implement. Now, I believe the story that pataug is its name all over the Levant." -New York Sun.

The First Quarantine.

From all accounts the custom of quarantino originated in Venico somowhere about the beginning of the tweifth century. All merchants and others coming from the eastern countries were obliged to remain in the house of St. Lazarus for a period of forty days before they were admitted into the city. Taking the idea from Venice, other European cities, especially port towns, instituted quarantine during seasons of piague, and well down into modern three most nations adopted the system, applying it when it was deemed necessary.

Because a policy issued 50 years ago has all the values of the policy issued at the |present date, and because his dividends has been most satisfactory; and because he has always felt a sense of security in having his insurance in this con.pany.

WHY are new policy-holders satisfied with their policy? Because he has a contract that is not duplicated by any other company; and because the securities held by the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company are the best to be had; and because the tradition of the Mutual Benefit has been to give every policy-holder a "square DEAL."

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

Maine Agricultural Experiment Station Issues Bulletin Giving Results With Plymouth Rocks.

Under the above title the Mainc agricultural experiment station has issued Builetin 192, which summarizes all of the results of the experiments which have been carried on at the station during the last 13 years in attempting to improve by breeding the average egg production of a strain of station to find out whether continued wit: A certain tract of artificial lneubation and brooding has a harmful effect on egg production are described. The effect of inbreeding on egg production is discussed on the basis of extensive experimental records. This is followed by a clear and simple explanation of a new plan of breeding which has been tried during the past five years, and which is based upon the conception that high egg productiveness is inherited in certain 'blood ilaes" and not in others, and that by a proper system of pedigree selection it is possible to isolate the of the bulletin is devoted to an exposition of the gratifying success which sons who have been cured by it 1f has attended the application of this new plan of breeding to the station flock. Strains which have high egg productiveness fixed as a definite character have now been obtained and are being propagated at the station.

It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darlus Downey, of Newberg Junction, N. B., writes, "My wife has been using Chamberialn's Tablets and finds them very effectual and doling her lots of good.' If you have any trouble with your stomach or bowels give them a trial. ### WOULD LABEL SINGLE MEN.

Philadelphia Prosecutor Urges Insignia to Warn Against Married Flirts.

Joseph Rogers, assistant district uttorney of Philindelphia, has come out in favor of labeling single men. He believes they should be distinctly marked with some conspicuous label and suggests that a neat bachelor bution would be about the proper thing. In advocating this innovation, Mr. itogers gives several reasons, the chief one being to project young women from married men illrts.

"But how would you enforce the wearing of the bachelor button?" Itogers was asked.

"Oh," he replied, "I am not going to discuss that matter. That is a nut for some other person to crack. All I say is that such an innovation would he a good thing."
